

It is essential to the People that the regulation on media ownership remain in place. Removing of the caps monopolizes the industry and will not serve the best interest of the American public. Thank You.